

How Does YOUR Insurance Company Measure Up?

Strength & Reliability

Ward Financial Group annually selects 50 property/casualty insurance companies from a field of nearly 3,000 to be part of its Ward's 50 Benchmark Group of Insurers. This group represents the model of strength and stability against which all other insurers are measured. Frankenmuth Insurance has been named to this elite group 13 of the last 15 years.

A.M. Best Company, the nation's oldest insurance company rating service, continues to give Frankenmuth Insurance an A+ (Superior) rating. An A+ rating means Frankenmuth Insurance has "achieved superior overall performance" and "shown the strongest ability to meet their policyholders and other contractual obligations."

Financial Soundness

Weiss Ratings, Inc. includes Frankenmuth Insurance in an elite group of insurance companies with an A (Excellent) rating. Less than 1% of the 2,400 insurance companies evaluated by Weiss Ratings receive a rating of A or A+. Weiss Ratings recognizes Frankenmuth Insurance as "strong" in capitalization and reserve adequacy. They state, "In sum, we believe this company offers excellent financial security. It has sufficient resources to cope with a variety of adverse situations, including a severe loss scenario."

Consistent Performance

Insurance industry rating services recognize Frankenmuth Insurance for our many years of superior performance. Policyholders have placed their trust in us for over 135 years. Both are testament to our consistent ability to meet obligations and provide superior policy and claim service for our policyholders.

When you place your trust in an insurance company, you need to know your insurer is strong and dependable. These independent sources confirm your trust is well placed in Frankenmuth Insurance!

A member of the Frankenmuth Financial Group

AGCY-150 (9-05)